Runquoi Proves the Victor in the Main Race in Fast Time.

James A. Sheridan Takes Steeplechase for Maiden Jumpers-Leaving for Fort Erie.

HAMILTON, Ont., August 4.—Another featureless card marked the fifth day's racing at Hamilton this afternoon, the program being framed to bring together the poorer grade of horses. The fifth race of the afternoon, a condition affair, brought together a well matched field and resulted in a victory for Otto Torrell's Runquoi over Rubidium and Clean Gone. The winner was ridden by J. Rowan and came from behind to win by a short length going away. Rubidium took second place by a short margin from Clean Gone. Claymore cut out the pace, which was a fast one, and when straightened out in the stretch quit badly.

Wraith outfooted a band of cheap ones in the opening dash and set the talent off to a bad start when she led Winchester and Gurgling Water home. The latter pulled up lame.

The usual daily steeplechase was down for decision and produced a spirited contest, in which James A. Sheridan graduated from the maiden ranks when he beat Licatenant Seas, with Flying Frog third.

Arrangements have here the Frog third.

Arrangements have been completed between the Seagram Stable and jockey Butwell, who is at present at Windsor, to come here to ride one of the Seagram starters in the Hamilton Cup, which is to be run on Saturday.

Trainer Joseph Tevis reported this morning that Dellahm would not be a starter until late at Fort Eric. Dellahm has been suking of late in his work.

Harry Giddings reported this morning that he had made arrangements to ship to the farm at Oakwille the two platers Heath Bell and Oakling. The former will be freshened up for fall racing, while Oakling has developed soreness.

W. P. Frazer of the Canadian Racing Associations

W. P. Frazer of the Canadian Racing Associations arrived from Toronto this morning and stated that he knew nothing beyond what he had heard in reference to the change in dates for the second meeting at Kenilworth.

Pointed for 1922 Grand National.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. August 4.—Having been barred for all times from starting in France because of a technicality arising from the old French "blue laws" of turfdom, Duettiste, Mr. J. E. Widener's high-class steeplechaser, is destined for a campaign in England, according to his owner, who returned last week from a trip abroad. The horse was recently shipped to Great Britain and will be trained by Escott, one of the foremost horsemen of that country and who has saddled two Grand National winners.

It was with the intention of seeing Duettiste saddled two Grand National winners.

It was with the intention of seeing Duettiste race in the Grand Hurdle Race at Autenil, that Mr. Widener, who is serving as a steward at the local meeting, made his French journey. To his surprise he found that the horse was under the ban due to the fact that he had shipped him out of that country during the wartime period without complying with all of the formalities required in such cases. When Duettiste left France with three of his stablemates, racing was practically suspended, and he procured the necessary papers from the minister of agriculture to conform with the legal regulations.

The law in question, however, requires that the

The law in question, however, requires that the departure of a horse which has never started in that country must be advertised three days in advance of its leaving, and of this rule he was ignorant. Somebody invoked the rule on him when the horse was returned there, and upon discovering that it still was valid, he immediately sent his good Jumper to England.

Duettiste is now in Escott's Stable at Lewes, England, and will probably be entered and start in some races under National rules this late autumn and winter. Duettiste will be a real American candidate in the Grand National and is just the horse to win that race, being of the right age and capacity, skillful at the fences, and fast on the flat.

REPRISAL IS MAKING AN IMPRESSION

Reprisal is evidently an exceedingly fast colt and may come to be regarded as a Saratoga revelation. It is characteristic of Saratoga racing to reveal previously unsuspected stars. There was plenty of demonstrated speed behind him in his easy victory of yesterday, including the winner of last year's Futurity. On that form he may fly successfully at higher game presently, especially if he proves as good as a stayer as he evidently as at sprinting.

MISS JOY RUNS AWAY FROM THE OTHER CRACK FILLIES

OF THE YEAR IN WINNING THE SCHUYLERVILLE STAKESAT SARATOGA, THE FREQUENT CANA-DIAN VICTRESS, SECOND THOUGHTS, FINISHING SECOND, WHILE MY REVERIE RUNS UNPLACED

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 4.—Montfort Jones' peerless Miss Joy, whose racing this year should not have been dimmed with defeat, proved conclusively in the Schuylerville running her right to the crown as queen of two-year-old fillies, for she won in a manner befitting royalty and was never fully extended in the five and a half furlongs that enabled her to land the $3.175 act that fell to the victress. Following her came Second Thoughts, representative of the best that Canada could muster, and Nancy Shanks, representing Maryland-Virginia, followed, with My Reverie, proclaimed as the best miss in the East, following.

As a contest it was devoid of spectacular features. It was more in the hare and hound order, the Kentucky filly enacting the role of hare and right merrily did she lead her opponents, and that, too at a heartbreaking pace as attested by her first quarter after traversing a sixteenth to find her stride in 21%. The three-eighths found her stride undiminished, for she covered the distance in 33%, the half mile in 46 and the last five-eights in 58%.

The expected Strong opposition to come from My Rayleric fill not mer rail in the last eighth of the stretch must fill by the shighly valued will be done for ethe busy Walters to slip the winner through next to the inner rail in the last eighth of the stretch was a jockey of prominence on American tracks not so long ago and whose more recent riding activities have been confined to tracks above at the saddle, but his riding will be done in Europe.

T. J. Healey, acting for R. T. Wilson, Jr., has sold privately five highly valued yearlings, sired by Olambala and Campfire, to Charles A. Stone-half mile in 46 and the last five-eights in 58%.

The expected strong opposition to come from My Reverie did not materialize, though the heretofore inbeaton filly was not lacking in speed. The best-she could do was stay about two lengths off from Miss Joy for the first quarter, but when Garner released Miss Joy from restraint she bounded away with wonderful case and left My Reverie floundering. Her leg weariness became manifest when she started swerving out. Second Thoughts, as a result, was forced to come wide, for she was on the outside of My Reverie.

Finding his competitors thoroughly spent an eighth Finding his competitors thoroughly spent an eighth from the finish, Garner began easing Miss Joy up, and her last sixteenth was covered under re-straint.

It required strong riding to bring Second Thoughts into second place, for Nancy Shanks, benefitting by My Reverie and Second Thoughts coming wide, closed a good bit of ground by virtue of staying close to the inner rail, and made a threatening rush near the end for second place honors. She failed to overhaul Second Thoughts, but My Reverie fell an easy victim to her rush.

As predicted on the occasion of her debut here, Miss Joy raced this afternoon in better fashion than she did in her initial eastern effort, and gave a fairly accurate line on her capability. It was pronounced good enough to give her a chance to beat the best in this section, and a meeting between Miss Joy and the much heralded Morvich is now of keen interest. Their meeting will be delayed until the Saratoga Special, in which both carry equal weights.

The exodus to Fort Brie will begin on Saturday, when the first shipment leaves. The Kenton Stable, G. B. Foreman, J. K. L. Ross, H. Giddings and numerous others have completed arrangements to ship.

FATOR TRIUMPHS OVER SANDE,

Jockey Fator turned the tables on his roommate Sande, and incidentally beat his contract employer out of a purse when he landed Lunetta victress over Valor. Sande had sent Valor into a good lead soon after the start and, after disposing of Love Tap, appeared a certain winner, but Valor's underpinning would not stand the strain in the last sixteenth, and he fell a ready victim to the rush of Lunetta.

Lunctia.

Maidens started in the steeplechase over the about two miles course and it was fairly spectacular as a contest. Because of Peccant, Ben Hampson and Overmatch being trained by M. Smart, the trio were grouped. This entry furnished the winner and the runner up in Peccant and Overmatch. The latter might have been more dangerous but for a displacement of his saddle during the running, which retarded his stride and prevented his rider's best horsemanship. Subahdar was given the call, but it was sadly misplaced, as he never figured seriously in the running. Unar, which was coupled with Plumeot, serving as the pacemaker for the first round, but it was on sufferance, as Peccant took the lead when Brooks called on him and he wounder restraint. under restraint. Unar did last long enough to take third place.

On the strength of her good Empire City showing when she became entangled in the barrier and finished in second place to Wellfinder, Joan Marie was given preference in the fifth race over Pickwick and The Lamb, but, judging by her poor showing, she needed a barrier to trail in her wake to steady her in running. Expectations of the wise set was not only astray as to Joan Marie, but Pickwick also disappointed. The winner turned up in Anniversary, which E. Haynes brought up with a rush in the last sixteenth to snatch the purse from The Lamb. Veteran following the pair.

Walter M. Jeffords' Reprisal, which had a previous victory to his credit at this meeting as a result of winning the inaugural dash, again made good by a high display of speed that kept him in front of the others for the entire way in the closing race and won easily from Messines and Step Lightly. The West fancied Brunswick here, but that faint-hearted racer, after finding himself unequal to head his field in the first quarter of the race, gave way completely in the stretch.

Maiden riders on ordinary two-year-olds did not Johin E. Madden has sold to S. C. Hildreth for the Raneocas Stable's account, the promising Wrack—Star Gift colt and a colt sired by Ogden.

The chestnut filly by Uncle—Planutess, brought here in the H. P. Headley consignment, died last night of pneumonia.

Writing from Baltimore to Sam Louis W. A. Burttschell stated that he was progressing furly but would not attempt to do any work until in the fall, when he will resume training a string of horses.

and will be here during the remainder of the meeting.

Frank J. Bruen, general manager of the Havana track, is an expected arrival tomorrow.

Jockey L. Morris, under contract to R. A. Smith, will arrive tomorrow from Canada to ride the horses of his contract employer.

George Carroll has engaged second call to E. R. Bradley during the meeting here, "Bud" Fisher holds the contract on the rider's service.

Jockey Frank Keogh was forced to suspend riding on account of being afflicted with boils.

John E. Madden today sold Collinga, a two-year-old chestnut daughter of Light Brigade—Hindoo Rose, to Commander J. K. L. Ross for a reported price of $17,500. The filly worked five-eighths of a mile in 1:00% this morning and the Canadian sportsman took her over following this trial. She was a double winner at the recent Empire City meeting: also won a race for maiden jockeys at Aqueduct, in which she was disqualified.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

One of the best of the second-class handicap horses in Belgian racing is named Boul' Mich, after Chicago's celebrated lake front thoroughfare.

The post time in race 56008, run at Hamilton Monday, should read "Went to post at 4:40. At post 5 minutes," instead of 3:40, as published. The error occurred in telegraphic transmission.

J. Booth, the Queensland, Australia, trainer, whose horses won five races at Brisbane, among them the Brisbane Cup with Impeyan and handleap with Syconelle, had a double bet on the pair of $15,000 to $105.

Racehorse training in the streets is occasionally comething of a nuisance in Kensington, and last week two offenders were fined $1 each and $1.75 costs, in default three days' imprisonment.—Sydney, N. S. W., Referee.

The early French three-year-old champion Ksar, by Bruleur—Kizil Kourgan, is not to race again until autumn. He was the high-priced yearling of 1918—820,200. French turfmen still marvel at Ksar's bad race in the Grand Prix.

Steve Donoghue, England's crack jockey, was once asked the weight of a horse. "Bless me," he said, "now you have got me. I can tell you the weight of every jockey breathing—but of a horse, no. Why, I've never been asked the question before, strange as it may seem."

Milton Henry is again riding well at the French burses. July 14 at St. Cloud he surprised by courses. July 14 at St. Cloud he surprised by landing the Spanish Marquis de Martorel's Nouvel long-priced horse, winner of the $15,000 Prix arechaux from Verdier (Bellhouse) and Vi-n (MacGee). The West fancied Brunswick here, but that faint-hearted racer, after finding himself unequal to head his field in the first quarter of the race, gave way completely in the stretch.

Maiden riders on ordinary two-year-olds did not prove an alluring combination, resulting in the opener being somewhat devoid of interest. Eight made the contest here, over the five and a half furlongs route, the winner turning up in R. T. Wilson's Duncecap, ridden by H. Waiters. Bantry Pass, on which T. Finn had the mount, finished in second place, with Sailing Along third, The latter, carry-

Kentucky Owners Dominate Day at Devonshire, Owner Worthington Scoring a Double.

WINDSOR, Ont., August 4.—C. W. Moore's Mc-Gee filly Martha Fallon scord her third straight victory in Canada when she beat a band of speedy two-year-olds in the $5,000 Border Cities Handicap at Devonshire Park this afternoon. She was ridden by Pool, made all the pace and won by a length and a half from Devonite. The stable connections were quite confident and scratched John Finn. Martha Fallon never left the result in doubt after covering the first eighth. She held command throughout and at the end was under slight restraint. The winner's portion of the money was $4,000.

covering the first eighth. She held collimand throughout and at the end was under slight restraint. The winner's portion of the money was $4.000.

It was a great day for the Kentuckians. C. T. Worthington scored a double when he won the first two races with Icon and Evelyn White. The former was ridden by Dishmon, and it was his first winning mount since his accident at this track last summer.

The going dried out as the afternoon progressed, but heavy clouds hung over the course which threatened at any minute to unload a deluge.

B. B. Rice has decided to rest his horses at Devonshire until the return of racing at Windsor. At the conclusion of the next meeting here he will ship his stable to Havre de Grace. Rice contemplates adding several more horses to his stable before shipping to Cuba He will also make an effort to secure the promising apprentice Penman to ride for him this winter.

William Dondas arrived this morning from Parkersburg, W. Va., where he went to inspect that racing plant. Dondas pronounced the track at Parkersburg the best half-mile track in the country. It is eighty feet wide, with the turns well thrown up. The stables are of the finest. The Parkersburg dates are from September 23 to 27. There will be twenty-five running races and the smallest purse will be $300.

The further entry of the horse Gold Galore has been ordered refused by the stewards. The horse was fractions in the paddock yesterday and just as he reached the track he lunged several times and unscating his rider, Mangan, kicked the latter on the head. He was withdrawn from that race and money wagered on him refunded.

TROUBLE WITH UNCLE SAM

R. A. Smith's Good Horses Seized Because of Liquor Stored in Their Car.

BUFFALO, N. Y. August 4.—Nine race horses, including Slippery Elm, winner of the Civic Heliday Handicap at Devonshire Park Monday, are being detained at the Green street yards of the American Railway Express Company and will probably be seized by United States customs officials. Customs inspectors on duty at the yards last night said that they found a case of French wine, eight quarts of whicky and sixteen pints of the same liquid, besides two bundles of cloth and two motion picture films, stored in the car with the horses. The horses were en route to Saratoga from Windsor. The horses that may pass into the possession of Uncle Sam before the day is out are: Wilfex, Tom Cassidy, Mark West, Pony Bill, Irish Kiss, John Morrell, Slippery Elm, Ultra Gold and Benevolent, Deputy collector Smith said this morning that if the horses are officially seized they will ask the permission of judge Hazel to sell them at public auction at once, on the grounds that they are perishable merchandise.

"This is the third time that our men have taken liquor from cars containing race horses. Once during the last Fort Eric meeting at another time we found liquor in the cars with horses."

GOOD SEND-OFF AT DELORIMIER PARK

MONTREAL. Que., August 4.—J. M. Cooper provided the winner of the Sherbrooke purse, the feature of the opening day's racing at Delorimier Park this afternoon, in Sheba. She led throughout, withstood a challenge from George W., and drew away in the stretch. Fireworth ran a dull race, and Chefa had no opposition for third place. Little Less easily took the measure of some speedy two-year-olds in the second race. Guardsman caused somewhat of a sensation in winning the initial race at odds of almost 40 to 1, the season's record locally.

man caused somewhat of a sensation in winning the initial race at odds of almost 40 to 1, the season's record locally.

Walter Mack and Truant both won with speed to spare. Petrograd broke down badly during the running of the fifth race.

Mrs. A. Miller claimed Frivolous for $900 after his last victory at Kempton Park.

Starter Elmer Wilson is able to be about again after his recent illness. He is rapidly regaining his strength.

Judge F. W. Gerhardy will leave here at the close of the King Edward Park meeting for Eric, Pa., where he will serve as judge and racing secretary during the racing at the Eric County fall fair, from August 22 to 28.

Joseph T. Walker. United States secret service officer, has returned to New York, having recovered and taken with him the plates from which the bogus twenty-dollar notes were made that were put into circulation at the recent Maisonneuve Park meeting.

Went to post at 5:05. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. RUNQUOI was taken back and saved to the stretch, then came fast when called on and was going away at the finish. RUBIDIUM, under stout restraint in the early running, was taken up when she vainly attempted to come through next to the inner rail in the stretch and slightly interfered with CLEAN GONE, then outstayed him at the end. The latter closed a gap with a rush and would have been second in another stride. CLAYMORE set a fast pace, but quit. KENTISH BOY could never get up.

Madden).

Went to post at 5:43. At post 3 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. MORMON ELDER quickly sprinted into a safe lead and, saving ground on the turns, easily held the race safe at the end. WOODTHRUSH moved up with a rush after leaving the far turn and, finishing gamely, outstayed EXHORTER through the final sixteenth. EXHORTER, a forward contender from the start, tired badly when called on. TAN SON ran a poor race. ANTOINETTE quit.
